4) Discussion Items

a. Chapter 2: Article II – Common Council and Article IV – Officers and Employees Ordinance Updates

Assistant City Administrator Schoenemann noted that the Committee left off their discussion of Chapter 2 at Section 2-21 (e) - Mayoral Veto Power at their last meeting. Mr. Schoenemann stated that the City follows the Wisconsin State Statute that governs mayoral veto power. Mr. Schoenemann reviewed the State Statute with the Committee noting that the proposed language is very similar to the language in the State Statute with one addition; the Mayor has the ability to veto acts of any committee that could have been taken by the common council if not delegated by the Common Council or this code to such Committee, including acts by the Planning Commission.

The Committee held a discussion on where the veto should go after it has been addressed at a committee level. Concerns were expressed that the veto process has the potential to delay an item. Following the discussion, Chairman Mayr inquired whether the Committee would prefer to have the veto go back to the Committee making the decision or forward to the Common Council for consideration.

The Committee reached a consensus on the language by a show of hands; any committee or commission decision that the Mayor vetoes automatically goes back to the Common Council, at that time the Council will take the vote to override the veto or refer it back to the Committee/Commission that made the decision. City Attorney Sajdak will draft the proper language.

The Committee concluded their review of Chapter 2 to allow for time to discuss the additional items on the agenda. Staff will reach out to the Committee to schedule a special meeting to continue the review of Chapter 2: Article II - Common Council and Article IV - Officers and Employees.

b. Hybrid Meeting Technology Update

Assistant City Administrator Schoenemann provided a demonstration of a hybrid meeting. The demonstration provided an illustration of the functionality and interaction capabilities of hybrid meetings. A suggestion was made to offer a TV monitor at each side of the dais in the Council Chamber.

Chairman Mayr requested that the topic of in-person meetings be placed on the agenda either for the June or July Public Welfare Committee meeting.

c. Community Outreach Committee

Due to time the lack of time, the Committee was not able to discuss the Community Outreach Committee. The item will be placed on the upcoming Special Public Welfare Committee meeting.

5) Information Items

a. Work Calendar

Due to the lack of time, the Committee was not able to review the work plan.

6) Motion to adjourn the meeting at 6:47 p.m.

Office of Administration

TO: Public Welfare Committee
FROM: Justin Schoenemann, Assistant City Administrator
DATE: January 7, 2021
SUBJECT: Chapter 2: Article II – Common Council and Article IV – Officers and Employees Ordinance Updates

Background

At its February meeting, the Public Welfare Committee continued its review of Chapter II: Article II – Common Council. The Chapter governs the Common Council, Mayor, all standing committees, and the City Administrator position. The Committee left of its review on Section 2-21 (e) that defines the veto power of the Mayor, which is located on the first page of the revised Chapter II. Currently, the Mayor's veto power is only defined in Wis. Stat. §62.09(8)(c), which states:

"The mayor shall have the veto power as to all acts of the council, except such as to which it is expressly or by necessary implication otherwise provided. All such acts shall be submitted to the mayor by the clerk and shall be in force upon approval evidenced by the mayor's signature, or upon failing to approve or disapprove within 5 days, which fact shall be certified thereon by the clerk. If the mayor disapproves the mayor's objections shall be filed with the clerk, who shall present them to the council at its next meeting. A two-thirds vote of all the members of the council shall then make the act effective notwithstanding the objections of the mayor."

Last month, the Committee had consensus supporting additional language that would allow the Mayor to exercise a veto at the Committee level in instances the Council delegated some of its authority to a Committee. The Mayor would have otherwise had the ability to exercise a veto at the Council level. The Public Welfare Committee further wished to define the proposed language by specifying that a vetoed action from a Committee will be acted upon by the Common Council, and the Council, in its sole desertion, can choose to send the vetoed action back to the Committee.

The updated veto in the draft Chapter II is revised as:

Except as otherwise limited by state law, the mayor shall have the power to veto all acts of the common council and all acts of any committee that could have been taken by the common council if not delegated by the common council or this code to such committee, including acts by the planning commission. All such acts shall be submitted to the mayor by the clerk and shall be in force upon approval evidenced by the mayor's signature, whether signed as mayor or as the chair of the planning commission, or upon the mayor's failure to approve or disapprove such act within five days. If the mayor fails to approve or disapprove any act within five days, the clerk shall certify such failure on the relevant document. If the mayor vetoes any act, the mayor shall file his or her objections with the clerk, and the clerk shall present them to the common council at its next meeting. A two-thirds vote of all members of the common council shall make the act effective notwithstanding the objections of the mayor, except that in the case of an act by a committee, the common council may, upon majority vote, return the vetoed act to the committee who shall have the opportunity at its next meeting to overrule the veto by a two-thirds vote of all members of the committee.

Discussion

The Public Welfare Committee will most likely resume its discussion of the Mayor veto language and continue to go through Chapter II section by section. To assist the Committee in its deliberations, staff has included:

- A redlined copy of the revised ordinance.
- An email from Mayor Wirth and a copy of 2017 Wis. Act 50, which details flexibility in noticing of special meetings for the Common Council.
- A Memo from Mayor Wirth that includes additional ordinance amendments.
- A copy of the existing ordinance.

A quorum shall consist of the lesser of six aldermen or, if there is one or more vacancies, two-thirds of all aldermen then holding office. The mayor or the majority of aldermen present may compel the attendance of absent members in order to obtain a quorum. Otherwise, the common council

A member of the common council may cause any item on the consent agenda to be separately discussed and voted by notifying the mayor, prior to the vote on the consent agenda, that he or she requires such separate consideration. A vote on the consent agenda does not approve any ordinance before the common council for a first reading except upon a motion to suspend the rules which is seconded and approved by two-thirds of the members present. Such a motion is not debatable and shall be decided without discussion.

- (8) Nominations and election of committee members.
 - a. The newly elected president shall nominate:

Sec. 2-40. - Agendas.

- (b) Not less than 72 hours prior to each regular meeting the clerk shall cause to be delivered to each alderman an agenda listing the specific matters which will be considered at the meeting. All reports of committees of the common council, ordinances, resolutions, communications, claims and similar matters to be considered by the common council shall be filed with the ~~city~~ clerk not later than 12:00 noon, ~~on the Monday of the week preceding~~ a regular common council meeting (or the preceding Friday in the event that the Monday of the week preceding a meeting is a recognized holiday). ~~Documents~~The mayor may approve the addition to the agenda of documents or matters filed after the above cut-off day or time ~~must be submitted to the mayor for his or her approval to be added to the agenda.~~

Sec. 2-41. - Procedures for proposed ordinances and resolutions.

Proposed ordinances and resolutions shall appear separately on the common council's agenda, and the agenda shall specify the number and title of each proposed ordinance and resolution and the status, as of publication, of committee consideration. No proposed ordinance or resolution shall be considered or discussed by the common council, and no action shall be taken on any proposed ordinance or resolution, unless the ordinance or resolution is presented to the common council in writing. No action shall be taken on any proposed ordinance without it having had one reading at a previous meeting of the common council unless there has first been a motion to suspend the rules which is seconded and approved by two-thirds of the members present. Such a motion is not debatable and shall be decided without discussion.

Sec. 2-42. - Rules of procedure, reconsideration, resubmission.

~~(a)~~The deliberations of the common council at any meeting whether regular, special or organizational, and all committee of the whole, appropriations committee and utility board committee meetings, shall be governed by the following rules:

- (a) Provided there is no objection by any alderman present, the presiding officer may at any time declare the common council a committee of the whole for informal discussion to discuss any matter before the common council. If there is an objection, the objection may be overruled by majority vote of the aldermen present.
- (b) Unless otherwise required for any group exercise, all aldermen shall remain in their allotted seats, and no conversation shall be indulged in, so that the common council may expeditiously proceed with the business before the meeting.
- (c) The parliamentary rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern deliberations of the common council unless otherwise specifically provided by state law or this code.
- (d) No alderman shall address the common council until he or she has been recognized by the presiding officer.

- (e) When two or more aldermen simultaneously seek recognition, the presiding officer shall name the member who is to speak first.
- (f) Except with respect to committee of the whole and appropriations committee meetings, no alderman shall speak more than twice for five minutes each time on any question without first obtaining permission from the common council. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the presiding officer may allow a time for questions by alderman of staff.
- (g) Only the presiding officer and ~~the~~ aldermen shall address the common council except:
 - (1) The public during any public hearing.
 - (2) City staff when recognized by the presiding officer.
 - (3) Residents during the part of the meeting reserved for personal appearances and public comment.
 - (4) With the permission of the presiding officer, residents of the city and other interested people as to matters which are being considered by the common council at the time the request to speak is made. Unless otherwise specified by the presiding officer, remarks shall be limited to five minutes.
 - (5) Others with the unanimous consent of the common council..._
- (h) Any person, including any alderman, addressing the common council shall direct his or her comments to the presiding officer, confine his or her remarks to the question under discussion and avoid all discussion of personalities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the presiding officer may allow questions of staff on any item.
- (i) No motion shall be discussed or acted upon until it has been seconded unless the rules permit one alderman to initiate action. No motion shall be withdrawn without the consent of both the person making the motion and the person seconding it.
- (j) Any alderman may require the reading in full of any matter at any time it is before the common council.
- (k) With the consent of the presiding officer, questions may be asked prior to a motion and second on a matter. Otherwise, a matter shall not be discussed until a motion is made and seconded.
- (l) When a question is under discussion, no action shall be in order except to:
 - (1) Adjourn
 - (2) Recess

- (3) Lay on the table
- (4) Move the previous question
- (5) Postpone to a certain day
- (6) Refer to a committee
- (7) Amend
- (8) Postpone indefinitely

The foregoing motions shall have precedence in the order listed.

- (m) The presiding officer may put any question when discussion has ended or each alderman has discussed the question twice. Any alderman wishing to terminate the discussion may move the previous question, in which event the presiding officer shall announce the question as: "Shall the main question now be put?" If two-thirds of the aldermen present vote in the affirmative, the main question shall be taken without further discussion, its effect being to put an end to all discussion and to bring the common council to a direct vote, first upon any pending amendments and then upon the main question.

~~(1) Every alderman within the common council chamber at the time a question is put shall give his or her vote unless it is his or her good faith belief that special circumstances compel him or her to abstain. An alderman shall announce his or her intention to abstain as soon as he or she determines that he or she intends to do so and shall thereafter refrain from participating in discussion on the question and shall remove himself or herself from the chambers for the duration of the discussion. Upon notifying the common council of his or her intention to abstain, an alderman may, but shall not be compelled to, make a brief oral statement of his or her reason for abstaining.~~

- ~~(n) Any alderman may demand a roll call vote on any matter properly pending before the common council.~~ A motion to adjourn shall always be in order. A motion to adjourn, to recess, to lay on the table or to call the previous question is non-debatable and shall be decided without discussion.

Sec. 2-43. – Voting.

In addition to other specific rules regarding voting in this code, the following rules regarding voting shall apply.

- (a) Aldermen. Each alderman shall be a voting member of the common council, whether regular, special or organizational, the committee of the whole, the appropriations committee, the utility boards and each committee (standing, special or otherwise) of which he or she is a member.

(b) Mayor. Except in the case of a tie, the mayor shall not vote at any meeting of the common council, whether regular, special or organizational, or at any meeting of the finance-personnel committee. The mayor shall be a voting member of the committee of the whole, the appropriations committee, the utility boards and any special committee of which he or she is a member.

(c) Presiding officer other than the mayor. When someone other than the mayor is the presiding officer, the presiding officer may vote.

~~(a) Votes necessary for passage or approval. All roll call votes shall be recorded specifying the vote of each named member in the minutes. Roll call votes shall be taken with respect to the following: adoption of any measure assessing or levying taxes, appropriating or disbursing money, or creating any liability or charge against the city of any fund of the city.~~

~~(2) No alderman may change his or her vote on any question after the result of a vote on the question has been announced.~~

~~(3) The mayor shall not vote except in case of a tie. When the mayor does vote in the case of a tie, his or her vote shall be counted in determining whether a sufficient number of the common council has voted favorably or unfavorably on any measure.~~

(d) Five affirmative votes, including the vote of the mayor in case of a tie, in favor of any proposed ordinance, resolution, motion, appointment or other matter shall be necessary for passage or approval unless (1) a larger number is required by state law or, (2) a different number is specified by this code. Notwithstanding or (3) this code specifies that approval shall be by "majority vote of the foregoing, if alderman present," or some substantially similar phrase.

(e) Ties.

(1) When the mayor votes in the case of a tie, his or her vote shall be counted in determining whether a sufficient number of members of the common council or the finance-personnel committee has voted favorably or unfavorably on any measure.

~~(4)~~(2) If one or more aldermen fails or is unable to vote, whether as a result of absence, abstention or vacancy, each non-voting member shall be deemed, for purposes of this subsection only, to have voted "no" on the question, and the minutes shall reflect such status as a "deemed no" vote. The mayor may break any tie resulting from such "deemed no" votes.

(3) Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the vote for president or to affirm the president's nominations to committees at the organizational meeting, the mayor shall only vote in the case of a tie if the common council has voted twice and, in each instance, the vote ended in a tie.

(f) Requirement to vote; abstention.

- (1) Any person eligible to vote shall, when within the room in which a vote is to be taken at the time a question is put, give his or her vote unless it is his or her good faith belief that special circumstances compel him or her to abstain.
- (2) An alderman or the mayor shall announce his or her intention to abstain as soon as he or she determines that he or she intends to do so and shall thereafter refrain from participating in discussion on the question and shall remove himself or herself from the chambers for the duration of the discussion and the vote on the matter. Upon notifying the common council of his or her intention to abstain, the abstaining official may, but shall not be compelled to, make a brief oral statement of his or her reason for abstaining.

(g) Roll call. Any alderman may demand a roll call vote on any matter properly pending before the common council or any committee. All roll call votes shall be recorded specifying the vote of each named member in the minutes. Roll call votes shall be taken with respect to the following: adoption of any measure assessing or levying taxes, appropriating or disbursing money, or creating any liability or charge against the city of any fund of the city.

(h) Reconsideration.

- ~~(5) A motion to adjourn shall always be in order. A motion to adjourn, to recess, to lay on the table or to call the previous question is non-debatable and shall be decided without discussion.~~
- (1) ~~(b)~~—An alderman voting in the majority may move for reconsideration of a vote, but only at the meeting during which the vote was taken, at the next regular meeting or at a special meeting that precedes the next regular meeting. However, no action of the common council shall be subject to a motion to reconsider after material legal rights (other than those rights granted by the common council pursuant to the vote) or obligations have arisen resulting from or by virtue of the vote. If a motion to reconsider is timely made, any rights granted by such vote shall be suspended until final action by the common council on the motion to reconsider. The confirmation of the appointment of a city official shall not be subject to a motion to reconsider. A motion to reconsider that has been made and lost shall not be renewed.
- (2) ~~(c)~~—No measure that has been introduced and lost by final action may be introduced again until the lapse of at least three months from the date of its consideration unless there has been a material change in the measure or an intervening event that changes the circumstances originally considered.

Sec. 2-~~43~~44. - Clerk, duties.

The city clerk shall, in addition to the duties prescribed by state law, furnish the chairs of committees and other city officers with the resolutions and other matters that may be referred to them and to perform all other clerical duties as the common council may require.

Sec. 2-~~44~~45. - Minutes of meetings.

With the agenda for each regular meeting of the common council, the city clerk shall, to the extent reasonably possible, supply to each alderman ~~at her or his residence~~ a ~~type~~ writtentypewritten copy of the proceedings of the previous ~~meetings~~ meeting. By majority vote of ~~thosethe~~ aldermen present, the common council may require the reading of the minutes at the ensuing meeting.

Sec. 2-~~45~~46. - Suspension of rules.

Except to the extent mandated by state law, all or any part of this article may be temporarily suspended in connection with any matter under consideration by a motion to suspend the rules which is seconded and approved by two-thirds of the members present. Such a motion is not debatable and shall be decided without discussion.

Sec. 2-~~46~~47. - Amendments.

The affirmative vote of six aldermen shall be required to amend all or any part of this article.

Justin:

After sending the last version to you, I came across a change in state law that the committee might want to consider.

Sec. 2-34(b) deals with notices for special meetings. My draft uses the same language that is in our current code except it adds a requirement for emailed notice. It requires notice of a special meeting to be “delivered to each alderman personally or by leaving the notice at an alderman’s residence.” The existing code language comes out of the state statutes.

However, in 2017, the state statute was changed to allow notice to be given to “members in a manner likely to give each member notice of the meeting.” See the attached copy of 2-17 Act 50.

Rather than delivery to an alderman’s home (which might not even give actual notice because an alderman might be at work), the new statutory rule is a bit more flexible.

We can stay with what is in my proposed ordinance if aldermen think it better ensures notice; however, I think the committee ought to know they can change that language.

I suggest that you add this email and the attached Act to the packet. If it is too late to do that, let me know and I will forward it to the committee.

Mayor

TO: Public Welfare Committee

FROM: John Wirth

DATE: February 9, 2020

SUBJECT: Changes to Article II

Since preparing the revisions in your packet, three possible additional changes have been brought to my attention. I present all of them for your consideration.

1. Notices for Special Meetings. See my email to Justin Schoenemann in the packet.
2. Economic Development Board. The draft before you provides that Economic Development Board issues should go to Public Welfare (see section 2-23(c)(2) on packet page 22). Kim Tollefson reminds me that all or almost Economic Development Board items that come to the Council have a significant financial component and have historically gone to Finance-Personnel. These include items like revolving loan fund applications. I suggest that you move Economic Development Board from Public Welfare to Finance-Personnel.
3. Administration. Ald. Mayr suggested to me that I prepare some language for the committee to consider regarding the mayor's role in the administration of the city. State statutes provide that the mayor is the chief executive; however, the statutes and our ordinances are vague as to what that means.

There are 27 cities in Wisconsin with populations between 16,000 and 40,000. Mequon belongs to that broad category. Beloit is an outlier in that it has a manager-council form of government with no mayor. Interestingly, of the other 26, exactly half have full time mayors and half (like Mequon) have part time mayors. The cities with full time mayors do not have administrators.

I definitely recommend against going to a full time mayor. Mequon is, and has been, served well by having a professional administrator handling the day-to-day administration of the city. However, in some cities with administrators, the mayor has the authority to check and balance the authority of the administrator. Those checks and balances take a variety of forms.

If the common council adopts the attached or similar changes, the common council would be the policy-making body (the legislative branch) and the mayor would oversee administration (the executive branch). The bureaucracy is within the executive branch. That is the design of the federal and state government and of many municipalities. It works well when each group plays its role.

The city administrator would remain responsible for professional day-to-day administration; however, as part of the executive branch, he or she would be subject to the broad policies adopted by the common council and the more direct authority of the mayor. A chief executive should be involved with and bear responsibility for administration.

I do not believe that Ald. Mayr suggested this review because he is dissatisfied with the current city administrator, and I did not draft these changes because of any such dissatisfaction. In my opinion, Will Jones is doing a good job, and he and I have a good working relationship. I would expect that changes in operations would not be significant. However, the mayor should be more than a figurehead. These changes would be particularly important if a future city administrator turns out to ignore the will of elected officials.

The public elects officials to ensure good government. The mayor and council members get the blame if administration does things poorly. Yet, in those communities (like Mequon) that arguably have fully ceded all administrative responsibility to a city administrator, the mayor and council members have limited options in affecting administration. Accordingly, administration can be unresponsive.

These changes would allow the mayor to be directly involved in correcting recognized staff issues. For example, the common council in recent years have expressed concerns over inspections and the timeliness of municipal prosecutions. The mayor has no ability to make changes other than trying to influence staff. I have been working on those issues and am making progress; however, these changes would give me the actual authority to address these issues.

Considering my relationship with Will Jones and department heads, I can be effective without these changes. I believe I am. However, that could be much more difficult if someday in the future Will Jones leaves, and might be much more difficult for a future mayor.

These changes also protect and codify the policy-making authority of the common council. For example, they ensure that council members can be part of any hiring committee.

Some communities have taken this much farther. For example, in one city, the administrator has no authority over the public works or development departments. In some cities, the common council can remove the administrator by a simple majority vote. I am not suggesting that the changes should go that far.

I attach two sets of amendments. The first set has some additional language for Article II (the ordinances the committee is currently reviewing). If the committee agrees with these changes, then it should consider the other set of amendments (to the ordinance that creates the position of city administrator) at the next meeting.

Now is the time to review the balance between elected officials and professional staff rather than waiting until we have a new city administrator (or new mayor).

ARTICLE II. - COMMON COUNCIL

DIVISION 1: Mayor and Common Council.

Sec. 2-20. – Generally.

The common council shall consist of the mayor and eight aldermen. The common council shall be elected, and vacancies shall be filled, pursuant to section 2-63. The common council shall have the committees described in division 2. The common council shall hold meetings pursuant to division 3.

Sec. 2-21 – Mayor.

- (a) In addition to those powers and duties set forth in this code, the mayor shall have the powers and duties of a mayor set forth in the Wisconsin Statutes.
- (b) The mayor shall be the city's chief executive officer. The mayor shall take care that city ordinances and state laws are observed and enforced and that all city officers and employees discharge their duties.
- (c) The mayor shall from time to time give the common council such information and recommend such measures as the mayor may deem advantageous to the city.
- (d) When present, the mayor shall be a member of, and presiding officer at, all meetings of the common council, whether regular, special or organizational, and its committee of the whole and appropriations committee.
- (e) Except as otherwise limited by state law, the mayor shall have the power to veto all acts of the common council and all acts of any committee that could have been taken by the common council if not delegated by the common council or this code to such committee, including acts by the planning commission. All such acts shall be submitted to the mayor by the clerk and shall be in force upon approval evidenced by the mayor's signature, whether signed as mayor or as the chair of the planning commission, or upon the mayor's failure to approve or disapprove such act within five days. If the mayor fails to approve or disapprove any act within five days, the clerk shall certify such failure on the relevant document. If the mayor vetoes any act, the mayor shall file his or her objections with the clerk, and the clerk shall present them to the common council at its next meeting. A two-thirds vote of all members of the common council shall make the act effective notwithstanding the objections of the mayor.
- (f) The mayor shall be the head of the fire and police departments.
- (g) Except to the extent otherwise required by law, all city employees other than the employees of the police department and the fire department shall be hired or appointed and supervised by the mayor pursuant to the city's personnel code and in consultation with the city administrator. The mayor may designate in writing that any city officer shall supervise any other employee or group of employees. Subject to this code, to other applicable law and to the written policies established and approved by the common council, the mayor may establish such rules and issue such orders as are necessary from time to time, in the mayor's reasonable discretion, in fulfilling the mayor's supervisory duties. Such rules and orders shall be effective when the mayor files them with the office of the city clerk and shall thereafter be applicable to the city employees and administrative matters described in such rules or orders.

- (h) In order to promote the efficiency and responsiveness of the city government to matters of concern to the city's residents and to assist the mayor in the performance of the mayor's duties, the mayor shall have the immediate advice and assistance of the city administrator, assistant city administrator, chief of police, fire chief, city assessor, director of community development, director of public works/city engineer, director of parks and operations, director of finance/treasurer, city clerk and city attorney. The mayor shall chair regularly scheduled meetings of all or some of such department heads as determined by the mayor.
- (i) The mayor shall appoint, subject to confirmation by the common council, the personnel described in (h) other than the police chief and the fire chief. The mayor shall appoint and utilize a hiring committee when conducting the final round of interviews for each of these positions. The hiring committee shall advise the mayor in connection with such appointments. The hiring committee shall include the city administrator (except when that office is being filled) and, if required by the affirmative vote of a majority of the aldermen, one or more aldermen appointed by the majority of the aldermen. The personnel appointed pursuant to this paragraph shall have indefinite terms of office subject to removal pursuant to state law.

Sec. 2-22 – Acting mayor.

- (a) If the mayor is absent or unable to perform any duty, the president of the common council shall be the “acting mayor.” If both the mayor and the president are absent or unable to perform any duty, the following shall be the order of succession as “acting mayor”: the chair of the public welfare committee, the chair of the public works committee and the chair of the public safety committee.
- (b) The acting mayor shall not have power to approve an act of the common council which the mayor has vetoed or to veto any act approved at a meeting at which the mayor was the presiding officer.

Current Ordinance

Sec. 2-30. - Rules of procedure, reconsideration, resubmission.

(a) The deliberations of the council shall be conducted in the following manner:

- (1) Provided there is no objection by any alderman present, the mayor may declare the entire council a committee of the whole for informal discussion at any meeting or for any purpose, and shall ex officio be chairman of the same.
- (2) During the meetings of the council all aldermen shall remain in their allotted seats, and no conversation shall be indulged in, so that the council may expeditiously proceed with the business before the meeting.
- (3) The parliamentary rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order revised shall govern deliberations of the council unless otherwise specifically provided by Wisconsin Statute or these rules.
- (4) No alderman shall address the council until he has been recognized by the presiding officer. He shall thereupon address himself to the presiding officer and confine his remarks to the question under discussion and avoid all personalities.
- (5) When two or more aldermen simultaneously seek recognition, the presiding officer shall name the member who is to speak first.
- (6) No person other than the mayor and an alderman shall address the council, except with the unanimous consent of the council, except that citizens may address the council with the permission of the presiding officer as to matters which are being considered by the council at the time the request to speak is made.
- (7) No motion shall be discussed or acted upon until it has been seconded unless the rules permit one alderman to initiate action. No motion shall be withdrawn or amended without the consent of the person making the same and the person seconding it.
- (8) No alderman shall speak more than twice and not to exceed five minutes each time on any question without first obtaining permission from the council.
- (9) When a question is under discussion, no action shall be in order except to:
 - a. Adjourn
 - b. Recess
 - c. Lay on the table
 - d. Move the previous question
 - e. Postpone to a certain day
 - f. Refer to a committee
 - g. Amend
 - h. Postpone indefinitely

The foregoing motions shall have precedence in the order listed.

- (10) Any alderman wishing to terminate the debate may move the previous question, in which event the presiding officer shall announce the question as: "Shall the main question now be put?" If two-thirds of the aldermen present vote in the affirmative, the main question shall be taken without further debate, its effect being to put an end to all debate and to bring the council to a direct vote, first upon any pending amendments and then upon the main question.
- (11) Every alderman when within the bar of the council chamber at the time a question is put shall give his vote unless it is his good faith belief that special circumstances compel his abstention on the question. Such alderman shall announce his intention to abstain as soon as he shall determine that he intends to do so, and shall thereafter refrain from participation in debate on the question. Upon advising of his intention to abstain from voting, such alderman may, but shall not be compelled to, make a brief oral statement of the reason for his abstention.

Current Ordinance

- (12) Any alderman may demand a roll call aye and no vote on any matter properly pending a vote before the common council. All roll call votes shall be recorded specifying the vote of each named member in the journal of minutes. Roll call votes shall be taken with respect to the following: adoption of any measure assessing or levying taxes, appropriating or disbursing money, or creating any liability or charge against the city of any fund thereof and on all ordinances. No alderman may change his vote on any question after the result of a vote thereon has been announced.
- (13) The mayor shall not vote except in case of a tie. When the mayor does vote in the case of a tie, his vote shall be counted in determining whether a sufficient number of the council has voted favorably or unfavorably on any measure.
- (14) A majority vote of all the common council, including the vote of the mayor in case of a tie, in favor of any proposed ordinance, resolution, appointment, or other matter, shall be necessary for passage or approval unless a larger number is required by the Wisconsin Statutes or by specific reference in these codes of ordinances. Notwithstanding, in the case in which an abstention or absence of an aldermanic member of the common council results in a four to three aldermanic vote, the absent or abstaining member shall be deemed, for purposes of this subsection only, to have voted "no" on the question, and the minutes shall reflect such status as a "deemed" vote.
- (15) A motion to adjourn shall always be in order and a motion to adjourn, to recess, to lay on the table and a call for the previous question shall be decided without debate.
- (b) It shall be in order for any alderman voting in the majority to move for a reconsideration of the vote on a question at the meeting during which the vote was taken or at the next succeeding regular meeting, but not otherwise. However, no ordinance may be subject to a motion to reconsider once published and effective pursuant to the provisions of Wis. Stats. § 62.11(4)(a), nor may action of the council be subject to a motion to reconsider after such time as legal rights and obligation have arisen resulting from or by virtue of the action. The confirmation of the appointment of city officials shall not be subject to a motion to reconsider. A motion to reconsider being put and lost shall not be renewed.
- (c) Whenever any measure shall be introduced for the consideration of the council and failed of adoption and passage, such measure (unless substantially changed) shall not be introduced again until the lapse of at least three months from the date of its last preceding consideration.

(Code 1957, § 1.12; Ord. No. 95-864, 2-13-1996; Ord. No. 96-875, 5-14-1996; Ord. No. 97-916, 4-8-1997; Ord. No. 98-961, 12-8-1998; Ord. No. 2006-1194, § I, 11-14-2006)

(Code 1957, § 1.13)

It shall be the duty of the clerk of this council, in addition to the duties prescribed by the Wisconsin Statutes, to furnish the chairmen of committees and other city officers with the resolutions and other matters that may be referred to them, and to perform all such other clerical duties as may be required by this council.

TO: Public Welfare Committee
FROM: Justin Schoenemann, Assistant City Administrator
DATE: February 4, 2021
SUBJECT: Community Outreach Committee

Background

Over the last few months, the Public Welfare Committee has been exploring creating a new Committee focused on community outreach. The Committee would work to establish connections between organizations to promote events open to the public and help share information about the community's unique characteristics. At the December meeting, the Public Welfare Committee discussed the idea of the Festivals Committee either working with or being a part of the new community outreach initiatives. Alderman Bushee and Assistant City Administrator Schoenemann attended the Festivals Committee's January 14 meeting to gather their feedback on the idea.

Analyses

The Festivals Committee had a 45-minute conversation about the community outreach initiatives. The discussion was framed around three general structure ideas. One being reimagining both Committees into one with new resources. The second structure idea shared is the Festivals Committee having a subgroup of members working on the new initiatives that could also be drawn from to assist with the annual events. The last structure idea shared was having two separate committees that would collaborate as opportunities arise going forward.

After a thoughtful conversation, the Festivals Committee had a consensus around the following feedback points:

1. With COVID-19 still present in 2021, the Festivals Committee would like to focus on planning both the summer and winter events to ensure safe and high-quality events during another pandemic year.
2. Long-term, the Festivals Committee is open to the idea of reimagining itself with the proposed Community Outreach Committee as long as new resources can come to bear for both the events and community outreach initiatives.
3. The Festivals Committee is open to working with another Committee when opportunities arise but did raise a point that there could be competition for members between the two Committees.
4. The Festivals Committee is also open to the idea of updating itself down the road to help with its own longevity and ability to provide events for the community.

Discussion

Staff is prepared to elaborate on the Festivals Committee feedback to assist the Public Welfare Committee in its conversation. A few discussion points for the Public Welfare Committee could consider include:

1. Discussing the idea of what the Public Welfare Committee would like to see long-term based on the Festivals Committee feedback to enhance the City's community outreach.
2. Both in the Festivals Committee and during past Public Welfare Committee conversations, the topic of resources has come up.
3. Further defining a scope of work for the proposed Community Outreach Committee.

Subject: Submission of Ordinance Draft and Motivation statement for Community Outreach Committee for August 12 Public Welfare agenda
Date: Tuesday, August 04, 2020 1:41:26 PM

First, please note that this is a post-only email and not meant to generate email discussion prior to the Wednesday meeting next week.

Chairman Mayr,

I reviewed the ordinances from several existing committees and ran into a little wall when reading the purpose line from the Festivals Committee:

The committee shall create, plan, promote and coordinate special events within the city, including gatherings that bring together residents, community groups and businesses to promote neighborliness, civic spirit and a sense of community. The committee shall emphasize use of the city hall/town center civic plaza.

I added the bolding to the part that essentially says exactly what I was thinking. However, I learned that the Festivals committee was established in 2013 to also utilize the newer town center area and Cedarburg road for events. This has resulted in two major annual events: Taste of Mequon and Winter Festival.

So, I'm kind of thinking that the Community Outreach committee will be similarly defined, but in areas exclusive of what the Festivals committee does. I have an overall description for the motivation of this new committee below, followed by my version of an ordinance.

Motivation

The main intent of this committee is to help establish bridges across the many different demographics within Mequon that reach out and positively impact segments within Mequon or as a whole. This can be in the form of age, religion, race, education, and more. Examples could include:

- Senior/ K-5 gatherings for reading, learning, plays
- Coordination across or within religious faiths for larger city events (ex: food drive for Thanksgiving, not a dialogue group, those already exist)
- Highlight race/ethnicity backgrounds somewhat like the spin-offs of Summerfest (eg: Italianfest, etc.) but not to be in competition with a Taste of Mequon, perhaps geared more towards cultural backgrounds and other unique abilities/knowledge brought to Mequon.

Mentorship programs since we have a high level of post-high school graduates to interact with younger groups concerning various career options and assistance in networking.

My intent here is to be inclusive in a positive way to the benefit of Mequon residents.
